

Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs

Instructions: Walk around the Unseen New World until you find the large Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs exhibit. Use the exhibit to answer these questions.

What's for lunch?

Read the information on the sign. Look under "diet".

What do these frogs eat? _____

What's in a name?

Animals have a common name and a scientific name.

The common name is what we usually call an animal.

The Nashville Zoo has Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs.

The scientific name is the name scientists use to talk about the animal.

The scientific name is always written in the Latin language.

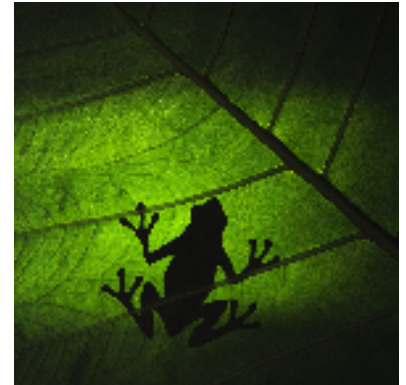

Find the scientific name on the sign at the bat exhibit and write it here:

D _____ I _____

What's going on? Watch the frogs for a few minutes and write down three things that the frogs are doing.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Where in the world? Look at the map on the exhibit. Color in the map below to show where these frogs live.

Answer Key: Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs

Instructions: Walk around the Unseen New World until you find the Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs exhibit. Use the exhibit to answer these questions.

What's for lunch?

Read the information on the sign. Look under "diet".

What do these frogs eat? They eat small bugs such as termites.

What's in a name?

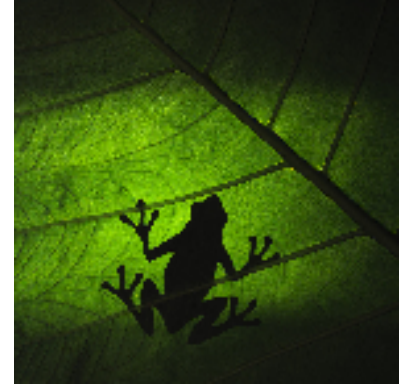

Animals have a common name and a scientific name.

The common name is what we usually call an animal.

The Nashville Zoo has Yellow and Black Poison Arrow Frogs.

The scientific name is the name scientists use to talk about the animal.

The scientific name is always written in the Latin language.

Find the scientific name on the sign at the exhibit and write it here:

D e n d r o b a t e s l e u c o m e l a s

What's going on?

Watch the frogs for a few minutes and write down three things that the frogs are doing.

Just about any answer is correct.

1. Hopping and Jumping.
2. Eating small bugs.
3. Sitting in water dish.
4. Climbing on logs and rocks.

Where in the world? Look at the map on the exhibit. Color in the map below to show where these frogs live.

Rainforest; Venezuela, Guyana

