Zoo Offers Free Admission for Veterans on Sunday

Nashville Zoo is offering free admission this Sunday (Veteran's Day) for active military personnel, military veterans and their families. The free admission is offered as the Zoo's gratitude for those that serve our country.

"We all have a deep appreciation for the commitment, bravery and sacrifices willingly offered by the military and their families," states Zoo President Rick Schwartz. "It's our honor to give them a day to enjoy Zoo at no expense."

Military personnel will be granted free admission during the Zoo's normal operational hours from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 11. Visitors must show their military ID, veteran organization ID, discharge papers or other official military identification to be given free admission. All immediate family members with military personnel will also be given free admission. Nashville Zoo offers a discount throughout the year of $1 off admission for military personnel and their families.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums, assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The mission of the Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation and leadership.
