Regions Bank Presents Ice Day at Nashville Zoo

Beat the heat and chill with the animals at Nashville Zoo's Ice Day on Saturday, July 24 from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. With temperatures rising, the Zoo transforms into a flurry of frosty fun with ice cream-eating contests, inflatable water slides and ice treats for the animals.

Ice Day is the perfect relief from the dog days of summer. Guests can enjoy free Blue Bell Ice Cream samples, soaking fun games, make-your-own ice treats, face painting and more. Kroger's Cool Zone Tent lets guests stroll through a flurry of snow, and Party Patrol's Club Chill is the perfect spot to shake off the summer heat.

To see some of the Zoo's animals devour their own brand of popsicle, like frozen grapes, turkey broth pops and chilled mealworms, pick up a keeper talk schedule at the front gate. Guests can win cool prizes by answering keeper talk questions correctly. Several animal ice sculptures will also be on display at some exhibits.

Ice Day is included with Zoo admission, however some activities have additional fees. Ice Day is sponsored by Regions Bank, presented by First Tennessee Bank and supported by Blue Bell Ice Cream, Kroger, Lifeguard Ambulance Service and Ford Motor Company Fund.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The mission of the Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation, and leadership.
