Celebrate Grandparents with Nashville Zoo and Humana

Grandparents are invited to spend a special day at Nashville Zoo courtesy of health insurer, Humana. The first 300 grandparents will receive free admission at the inaugural Grandparents' Day at the Zoo on Saturday, July 31 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Grandparents' Day at the Zoo is a day of fun for all ages. Taking place on Festival Field, activities include inflatable bounce houses, face painting, special giveaways and more. Guests can enjoy rides on the Wild Animal Carousel and adventures through Lorikeet Landing with more than 50 Australian parrots. Keeper talks will be held at animal exhibits throughout the day and animal shows will be presented in the Zoo's amphitheater.

For grandkids and other family members who want to join in the fun, Grandparents' Day at the Zoo is included with Zoo admission. For more information, visit www.nashvillezoo.org.

Humana is sponsoring Grandparents' Day at the Zoo as part of the company's commitment to wellness – physical, emotional and social. Humana is one of the nation's largest publicly traded health and supplemental benefits companies, with approximately 10.4 million medical members and approximately 7.2 million specialty-benefit members. Humana is a full-service benefits solutions company, offering a wide array of health and supplementary benefit plans for employer groups, government programs and individuals. More information regarding Humana is available on the company's web site at www.humana.com.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums, assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The mission of the Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation and leadership.
